Dear Friend,

Penny, Jeremy and I want you to know how excited we are about the privilege of being with you in your upcoming harvest event. We look forward to shaking your hands and hugging your necks in fellowship. I know that we are going to make many new friends while serving your church.

I hope you have been praying for your lost family members, neighbors and friends as you have prepared for this event. If not, it is not too late to start! I want to encourage you to make every effort to get them to the services where they are going to hear the good news of Jesus Christ. Your effort may make an eternal difference in their life.

As you approach this time, will you think about this question: What do I expect God to do in my life through this encounter with him? I believe that if we approach this time expecting that God is going to do something great in our life, then He will. However, if we approach this time with no expectations, then God is not going to do much.

We are looking forward to seeing you. Please pray for us as we travel and minister with you.

Under His Wing,

Darrel Davis
