

The cheerful Merry Christmas of the past is slowly being replaced by the politically correct Happy Holidays. Not only is Christ not at the center of the celebration, He isn't even considered to be a reason for the season. If I seem upset about the changes that are taking place in regard to Christmas, it's because I am! It's not because an old tradition is being changed. No. I am upset that the virgin birth of Jesus Christ (the event that made it possible for us to have eternal life) is being hidden from view with decorations, wrapping paper, parties, and political correctness! It's worth celebrating that Jesus came to earth. His birth signaled hope for all mankind. He lived a perfect life before God and He showed us that He truly was God's Son. And by giving up His life on a cross, He took our punishment, paying the penalty for our sins. He then rose from the grave and defeated death.

All you have to do is to repent (turn away) from your sins and place your faith and trust in Him alone. Pray something like this: God, I am a sinner and guilty of breaking your laws. Please forgive me of all my sins and be my Lord and Savior. I turn from my sins and put my faith in you alone. Thank you for forgiving me and giving me eternal life. In Jesus Name. AMEN.
